

I do not appreciate the unsolicited calls that often come from telemarketers. I feel that such calls are a violation of my privacy and that my rights should far outweigh the rights of a business.